

FOR COMMUNITY CALENDARS

March 1, 2018

Contact: Diana Brewer, Development and Communications Coordinator

251-990-5004 / diana@weeksbay.org

9th Annual Bald Eagle Bash

Saturday, April 21, 2018

4 p.m. to 7 p.m.

Tonsmeire Weeks Bay Resource Center

Featuring fresh local shrimp and delectable desserts prepared by the area's finest restaurants, live local music by Johnny Hayes and the loveseats, a signature beer prepared by Fairhope Brewing Co., and a beautiful sunset over Weeks Bay.

Tickets: $45 in advance; $50 at the gate. Children 10 and under are FREE.

Tickets are available online at baldeaglebash.com and at Page & Palette in Fairhope, Serda's Coffee in Daphne and Mobile, Serda Brewing and Red Beard's Outfitter in Mobile, and at the Weeks Bay Reserve and Foundation offices in Fairhope. Free parking is available at the Weeks Bay Foundation office, across from the Weeks Bay Reserve, with shuttles providing transportation to the event.

Bald Eagle Bash is the Weeks Bay Foundation's largest event, raising funds to restore vulnerable coastline, protect water and wildlife, and preserve sensitive habitats and ecosystems that contribute to our overall quality of life.

For more information, call 251-990-5004, visit baldeaglebash.com, or find us on Facebook and Twitter.

-30-

Weeks Bay Foundation is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit and an accredited land trust. The Foundation has been working in coastal Alabama for more than 25 years to protect important wetland habitat and educate the community about the importance of our bogs, swamps, and marshes to our quality of life.